

Good afternoon, everyone. We are Shue Wong's children, Herald, Derrick, and Tracey. From the bottoms of our hearts, thank you so much for gathering today. Dad was born on December 6, 1935, and passed away on November 16, 2022, at the age of 86 years. Shue Ning Wong, you were the eldest child of your family of four brothers and two sisters. Born in a Toisan City called King Saing or something close to that, you later went to Hong Kong and to Macau. Then you came to Canada for a better life when you were twenty years old, working as a dishwasher and then remaining in a small village in Alberta called Forestburg, supporting your family overseas monetarily as a waiter, barber, and then a famous barber before working as a bartender for 10 years. A family member had said, "without remittance, we would die!" You were a handsome young man.

You were a hardworking individual who had worked various jobs from cooking to working in restaurants, from running a business to cutting people's hair, and from serving drinks to performing cleaning of government offices in addition to having volunteered many, many hours. You were not afraid to speak up for your family and for what was important and right. You endured and overcame many challenges and struggles. You and Mom had the support of the Edmonton Jaycees, or Edmonton Junior Chamber of Commerce, now Edmonton Junior Chamber International (JCI) and the Edmonton Jaycettes community service organizations. Thank you so much for your service and commitment to serving others. Later, you volunteered with the Lions Club. Thank you, God, for providing for our Dad and Mom to serve in various places and capacities.

Dad, you learned many skills; gained knowledge and experience; got to know many, many people in the community and in the political sphere; faced many challenges and struggles and overcame them; were dedicated to us, your family, and to providing for us; sacrificed for your family; became a Christ-follower; got baptized; and served God faithfully, for instance, by inviting people to church, to Bible Study, and leading Bible Study. Praise the Lord! You are now in Heaven. Thank you so much for your example, advice, protection, provision, discipline, the memories, your love.

On behalf of our family, we say, Dad, Grandpa, Uncle, Brother-In-Law, Great Uncle, we love you so much.
